Re: Lara Fashion Limited, et al. v. Habib Arazi, et al., No. 1:18-cv-09105 (SLC)

Dear Judge Cave,

We write as counsel to Lara Fashion Limited and New Fairsel Limited (together, the “Plaintiffs”) to update Your Honor on the progress of the parties’ settlement discussions per the Court’s order dated May 21, 2020. See ECF Dkt. 69. As of this afternoon—and following more than a week of settlement discussions—the parties are close to reaching alternative settlement terms. However, such terms have not been finalized.

In order to limit further delay in this matter yet still provide the parties with an opportunity to complete settlement and execute a formal agreement, we respectfully request that the Court permit the Plaintiffs until June 11, 2020 to file their motion to enforce the prior settlement terms, and provide the Defendants with 21 days to file an opposition. In anticipation of a circumstance in which the motion to enforce the prior settlement is ultimately denied, we further request the Court order that any deposition of Mr. Arazi be held on or before July 1, 2020. In the event a new and alternative settlement is finalized by June 11, 2020 (as we hope and expect it will be), both these procedural deadlines will be obviated.

All parties consent to the schedule set forth above. We thank Your Honor for the Court’s attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted:

SAM P. ISRAEL, P.C.
